Furthering International Relations Capacities and Intercultural Engagement to Nurture Campus Diversity and to Support Internationalization at Home (FRIENDS)

RTC-FRIENDS Teahouse Events Calendar

The following events calendar is a list of tentative events and activities that the RTC-FRIENDS team has planned for the year of 2021. All the events planned have the concept of ‘bringing people together and celebrating intercultural ideas and practices’ as their core principle. Due to the list of events being tentative in nature they can be subjected to change as the year progresses and new possible external changes arise.

Spring Semester, 2021. (March-June)

Date	Event	Description
27 th April, 2021	FRIENDS Teahouse Code of conduct draft discussions,	Team meeting and discussion on the drafting of the teahouse code of conduct. The document was inclusive of the code of conduct for both the visitors and the staff of the Teahouse. The points were only addressed and highlighted.
2 nd June, 2021	FRIENDS International and Intercultural Festival.	The FRIENDS team will be celebrating the “FRIENDS International and Intercultural Festival” on the 2 nd of June. Due to having no international students on campus, this time’s focus of the festival will mainly be on sensitization and awareness on the values/ideas of multiculturalism, internationalization and the cross-cultural experience. The audience will be presented with more details of the teahouse as the facility will be kept open for the audience to visit.
