DEWEY INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

20 December 2022

We welcomed the MOOC course provided by the FRIENDS project.

However, the entire content of that course did not fit neatly into any one course of our curriculum. As a result we divided the content into two parts, to coincide with the partial content of two of our existing courses, one in the Faculty of Social Sciences, entitled Intercultural Relations, the other in the Faculty of Management, entitled Cross-cultural Management. The content was spread about 50-50 between the two existing courses.

All students majoring in the Social Sciences must therefore take about half of the MOOC, while all students majoring in Management must take the other half.
